

VAK Learning Styles

The VAK Learning Styles denote the three dominant learning modes namely Visual, Auditory and Kinaesthetic. A common mistake in education is to assume whatever is taught is learnt. Good educators are mindful of the differing learning styles and adjust their teaching methods accordingly to maximise learning and retention. Tools such as questionnaires and games can assist in determining the learning styles of individuals.

